Volunteer Opportunities

The LAX Flight Path Museum and Learning Center welcomes more than 1,000 visitors each month with a variety of exhibits, guided tours, special events and other educational programs, all spotlighting the legacy of aviation and aerospace in Southern California. Dedicated volunteers are key to the success of Flight Path.

MORE VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED age 18 and above to serve as museum docents, greet visitors and conduct tours. We also need volunteers who can build and maintain exhibits, assist with record keeping (MS Office and graphics skills a plus) also social media, help in our research library and with special events on and off-site (weekdays, weekends and evenings).

ANYONE WITH A LOVE OF AVIATION OR AEROSPACE and a desire to share that enthusiasm with others is encouraged to apply. Regularly scheduled volunteers are most needed, but flexible and on-call persons are also desired.

APPLICATIONS ARE AVAILABLE NOW on the museum website www.flightpathmuseum.com or at the museum reception desk.
